WELCOME TO OUR MONTHLY ROUND-UP
OCTOBER EDITION

With your support, Human Appeal reached seven countries this October.

In Gaza, we delivered 15,000 hot meals in a single day to families across North Gaza, Khan Younis and Deir al-Balah, and provided specialist medical care to Reema, a young girl living with a rare skin condition.

In Sudan, our bakery has now put over 3.8 million loaves into the hands of families since January, and displaced families in Gedarif received emergency food parcels.

In Syria, we're making the final improvements to Ain Al-Qantara School, providing maternal and child healthcare through our Al-Iman Hospital, and celebrating with Hayat as she heard sound for the very first time.

Our Back-to-School initiative continued this month, and children in both Syria and Yemen received the supplies they need to approach their education with a light heart and a hopeful future.

We also provided full-time care for children living on the streets in Bangladesh.

All of this was made possible by your support and compassion. Thank you.

Read on to see the full impact of your kindness this October.

CHILD WELFARE

Supported 40 orphaned children with clothing vouchers, so they have warm clothes for the winter.

LEBANON

Transporting medical supplies.

HEALTH

Delivered four medical containers to Lebanon, which will provide supplies to nearly 40 hospitals across the country.

SOMALIA

HEALTH

Distributed essential medical equipment and supplies to 12 health facilities, including surgical masks, respirators, gauze, and other items.

WASH

(WATER, SANITATION AND HYGIENE)

Constructed a borehole in Baidoa in order to improve access to safe, clean water for approximately 20,000 people.

SUDAN

FOOD SECURITY

Between 17 January and 30 September, our charitable bakery put 3,858,681 loaves into the hands of the families who needed them most. Every single day, 1,900 families across 12 neighbourhoods woke up to warm bread.

Families collecting food parcels in Al Hurri camp.

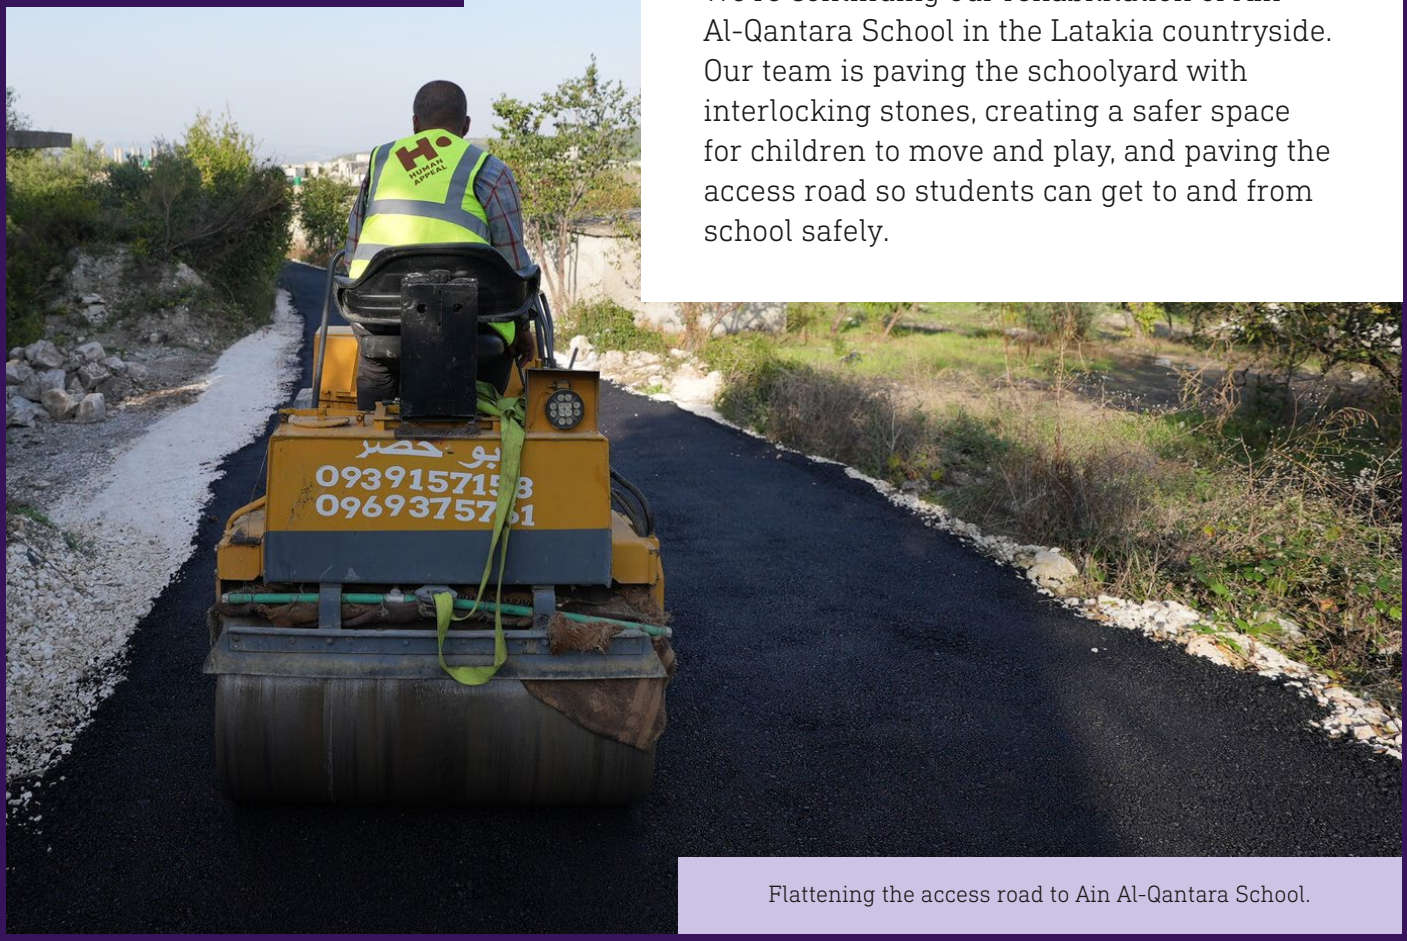

FOOD SECURITY

In Al Hurri camp, Gedarif State, 107 displaced families received food parcels filled with lentils, cooking oil, flour, rice and vegetables, helping parents feed their children and regain the strength to keep going. This distribution was made possible through the generous support of the WAQF Fund.

SYRIA

EDUCATION

We're continuing our rehabilitation of Ain Al-Qantara School in the Latakia countryside. Our team is paving the schoolyard with interlocking stones, creating a safer space for children to move and play, and paving the access road so students can get to and from school safely.

SHELTER

Human Appeal restored 52 damaged homes in Ain Al-Qantara, allowing displaced families to return to their village.

HEALTH

A delegation from the Union of Medical Relief and Care Organisations, joined by eight Canadian Members of Parliament, six members of the Canadian Arab Congress and Rania Lawendy, Deputy CEO of Human Appeal Canada, visited Al-Iman Hospital. They toured its departments and saw first-hand the impact of your support on healthcare in northwestern Syria.

HEALTH

Last month, we shared that 11-year-old Hayat had received a cochlear implant. This October, her journey reached a life-changing milestone as her external sound processor was fitted, and she began to hear the sounds around her for the very first time. For Hayat and her family, it is a long-awaited dream come true.

HEALTH

Al-Iman Hospital continues to provide essential healthcare around the clock to displaced families and communities in Sarmada. With a focus on mothers and children, its paediatrics and gynaecology clinics offer antenatal care, consultations and deliveries, alongside emergency care, nutrition support, laboratory services and specialised protection support for survivors of gender-based violence.

YEMEN

EDUCATION

Our Back-to-School project in Aden Governorate is supporting 1,200 orphaned children as they return to school. Each child up to Grade 6 received a school bag filled with stationery, a water bottle and a school uniform, helping them begin the new year with confidence and dignity.
