WELCOME TO OUR MONTHLY ROUND-UP SEPTEMBER EDITION

With your support, Human Appeal reached seven countries this September. We reminded people in Gaza, Pakistan, Somalia, Sudan, Syria and Yemen that they are not alone, that people from around the world are thinking of them and their troubles.

In Gaza, we continue to support the long-term health and education of children; supporting temporary learning spaces and organising psychological support activities. We're also providing medical care through mobile clinics, and thousands of hot meals. In Sudan, we provided over 1 million litres of clean water, fulfilling a vital need for displaced and remote communities, as well as over 20,000 loaves of bread daily. We also supported 120 women with training programmes, providing them the tools they need to start businesses when they graduated. In Syria, we're helping people rebuild their homes, rehabilitating damaged buildings and schools, and providing medical care through our Al Iman Hospital as well as by providing medical supplies and supporting individual medical cases in need of surgery.

Our Back-to-School initiative started this month, and children in both Syria and Yemen received the supplies they need to approach their education with a light heart and a hopeful future.

We provided medical care in Pakistan and Yemen, built water wells in Senegal, and supported farmers and schoolchildren in Somalia.

All of this was made possible by your support and compassion. Thank you.

Read on to see the full impact of your support this September.
